Dear Sir or Madam:

Bumdari Boldsukh has been a stalwart volunteer teacher and active member of SMYC community since 2018. She strikes me as a very down to earth person with good common sense, a diligent work ethic and excellent organization skills. While volunteering and teaching, Bumdari is always engaged and proactive and has a positive attitude.

Bumdari's commitment to preserving Mongolian culture, language and helping the Mongolian community is seen through her multiple efforts in planning various cultural events such as Children's day and running effective and fun classes for the kids like the coding robotics and conversational Mongolian classes. It is obvious to see that she is well liked and respected by her students and peers. Her dedication and ability to prioritize and openly communicate makes her an inspiring and unconventional teacher. During the pandemic in 2020, she was one of the key contributors in putting together our very first virtual holiday event for the children. While she was busy with final exams, she still managed to stay on top of her responsibilities at SMYC, regularly attended touch base meetings, and even helped her fellow teachers get more comfortable using Zoom and PowerPoint. She has been undoubtedly instrumental in supporting our organization's vision and not afraid to recommend her ideas and improvements for our youth programs. Bumdari impresses in that she does well in school with challenging classes, actively volunteers in multiple organizations.

Please give Ms. Bumdari serious consideration for the admission to your university as she is an exceptional candidate.

If I can be of further assistance, please contact me at (425)-286-5758 or by email at tsatsral@seattlemongolianyouthcenter.org

Sincerely,

Tsatsral Tserendash
